Mamoru Fujisawa

Also known as Joe Hisaishi

Joe Hisaishi (Hisaishi Jō), is a Japanese composer and musical director known for over 100 film scores and solo albums dating back to 1981. Hisaishi's music has been known to explore and incorporate different genres, including minimalist, experimental electronic, Western classical, and Japanese classical.

Hisaishi was born in Nakano, Nagano, Japan, as Mamoru Fujisawa (Fujisawa Mamoru). He started learning violin at the Violin School Suzuki Shinichi at the age of four, and began watching hundreds of movies each year with his father. He attended the Kunitachi College of Music in 1969, where he majored in music composition, and collaborated with minimalist artists as a music engraver.

Hisaishi has been involved in a variety of films and TV shows such as Laputa: Castle in the Sky, Porco Rosso, Princess Mononoke, Sasuga no Sarutobi, Two Down Full Base, Mobile Suit Gundam Movie II: Soldiers of Sorrow, and Mahō Shōjo Lalabel.

Hisaishi's most recognizable compositions that have led him to greatness are Summer to Kikujiro, One Summer's Day to Spirited Away, and Merry-Go-Round to Howl's Moving Castle.

Hisaishi has won numerous awards, including seven Japanese Academy Awards for Best Music, the Newcomer Award from the Ministry of Education, the Art Choice Award for New Artist, and the International Film Music Critics Association Award for Television Division Best Original Score Award. Joe Hisaishi Symphonic Concert: Music from the Studio Ghibli Films of Hayao Miyazaki celebrates the illustrious partnership between acclaimed composer Joe Hisaishi and beloved filmmaker Hayao Miyazaki.

In a new concert production, Joe Hisaishi's celebrated scores – including those from Princess Mononoke, My Neighbor Totoro and the Oscar-winning Spirited Away – are performed with a full orchestra and choir conducted by Hisaishi himself. The music accompanies montages from Miyazaki's films, breathing new life into the timeless work of Hisaishi and Miyazaki.

There will be over 150 musicians and singers on stage including the man himself Joe Hisaishi.

There will be a video montage that will take you through each song that will be performed. You will not only hear the music but have the ability to see how it is involved with each film.

Snacks and drinks are available outside of the venue and after the concert is over you will have the ability to explore the rest of New York City.
